Collect

ALMIGHTY and everlasting God, who dost govern all things, both in heaven and on earth: mercifully hear the supplications of thy people; and grant us thy peace all the days of our life; through our Lord Jesus Christ, thy Son, who liveth and reigneth with thee in the unity of the Holy Spirit, ever one God, world without end.

First reading

Isaiah 49:3,5-6

The LORD said to me, 'You are my servant, Israel, in whom I will be glorified.'

And now the LORD says,

he who formed me from the womb to be his servant, to bring Jacob back to him, and that Israel might be gathered to him—for I am honoured in the eyes of the LORD,

and my God has become my strength—

he says:

It is too light a thing that you should be my servant

to raise up the tribes of Jacob

and to bring back the preserved of Israel;

I will make you as a light for the nations,

that my salvation may reach to the end of the earth.'

Second reading

1 Corinthians 1:1-3

Paul, called by the will of God to be an apostle of Christ Jesus, and our brother Sosthenes,

To the church of God that is in Corinth, to those sanctified in Christ Jesus, called to be saints together with all those who in every place call on the name of our Lord

Jesus Christ, both their Lord and ours:

Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

ALLELUIA

Jn1:14,12

Alleluia, alleluia!

The Word became flesh and dwelt among us; to all who did receive him, he gave the authority to become children of God. Alleluia!

John 1:29-34

At that time:

John saw Jesus coming towards him, and said, 'Behold, the Lamb of God, who takes away the sin of the world! This is he of whom I said, "After me comes a man who ranks before me, because he was before me." I myself did not know him, but for this purpose I came baptising with water, that he might be revealed to Israel.' And John bore witness: 'I saw the Spirit descend from heaven like a dove, and it remained on him. I myself did not know him, but he who sent me to baptise with water said to me, "He on whom you see the Spirit descend and remain, this is he who baptises with the Holy Spirit." And I have seen and have borne witness that this is the Son of God.'

Prayer over the Offerings

We beseech thee, O Lord: that thou wouldest vouchsafe to sanctify these our oblations; and to cleanse us from the defilement of all our iniquities; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Preface

Preface of the Epiphany

It is very meet, right, and our bounden duty, that we should at all times, and in all places, give thanks unto thee, O Lord, holy Father, almighty, everlasting God; because in the mystery of the Word made flesh, thou hast caused a new light to shine in our hearts, to give the knowledge of thy glory in the face of thy Son Jesus Christ our Lord. Therefore with Angels and Archangels, and with all the company of heaven, we laud and magnify thy glorious Name; ever more praising thee, and saying: Holy, Holy, Holy &c.

Communion

Laetabimur (Ps 20:5)

We will rejoice in thy salvation: and triumph in the Name of the Lord our God.

Postcommunion

INCREASE, O Lord, we pray thee, and multiply upon us the operation of thine almighty power: that we, whom thou hast quickened with these heavenly sacraments, may by thy grace be made ready to receive the benefits which thou dost promise; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

SUNDAY 18TH JANUARY
THE SECOND SUNDAY AFTER EPIPHANY

There is no break between Christmas and Ordinary Time: one flows almost seamlessly into the other through the Baptism of Jesus. We ended our Christmas Season thinking about the revelation of the Son of God people realising who this Jesus of Nazareth actually was and this continues today, as we interject a passage from Saint John before we begin our weekly reading through Saint Matthew's Gospel. New Year is about beginnings, and as we return to the beginning of Our Lord's public ministry there is a sense of something exciting about to happen, even though we know the story, we dive into it once more, like returning to a favourite novel or film. So it is with joy that we stand in the country of the river Jordan, and recognise Jesus of Nazareth as the Chosen One of God, who offers himself to do God's work.

This Sunday's Readings

Isaiah 49:3,5-6

First reading

Jesus speaks through the prophet Isaiah in today's First Reading. He tells us of the mission given to Him by the Father from the womb: "You are My servant," He said to Me." Servant and Son, our Lord was sent to lead a new exodus—to raise up the exiled tribes of Israel, to gather and restore them to God. More than that, He was to be a light to the nations, that God's salvation may reach to the ends of the earth.

1 Corinthians 1:1-3

Second reading

Only Jesus could make that perfect offering of himself. And through His sacrifice, He has given us ears open to obedience, made it possible for us to hear the Father's call to holiness, as Paul says in today's Epistle. He has made us children of God, baptized in the blood of the Lamb (see Revelation 7:14). And we are to join our sacrifice to His, to offer our bodies—our lives—as living sacrifices in the spiritual worship of the Mass (see Romans 12:1).

John 1:29-34

Gospel

In the new exodus, Jesus is the "Lamb of God," as John beholds Him in the Gospel today (see 1 Corinthians 5:7; 1 Peter 1:18-19). Our Lord sings of this in today's Psalm. He has come, He says, to offer His body to do the will of God (see Hebrews 10:3-13). The sacrifices, oblations, holocausts, and sin-offerings given after the first exodus had no power to take away sins (see Hebrews 10:4). They were meant not to save but to teach (see Galatians 3:24). In offering these sacrifices, the people were to learn self-sacrifice—that they were made for worship, to offer themselves freely to God and to delight in His will.

Crib Figures

As you may be aware, we are lucky to have a very fine quality set of crib figures. As is traditional, the crib scene of the the Holy Family will remain until Candlemas. The Magi are returning by a different route to their own countries, and the shepherds, along with the sheep and the cows, have gone back to abide their fields.

However. Time has taken its toll on the figures: the angel's wings are broken; their clothes are dirty; one of the Magi has lost a finger, and all of them have lost their gifts. In short, they need to be professionally restored, the cost of which will be £1980. If you feel able to contribute to the cost of this, it will be greatly appreciated.

Next Sunday:

Sunday January 25th 2026: the end of the Week of Prayer for Christian Unity. There will be a Solemn Evensong at 3.30pm. It is a great joy to welcome back the Rev. both in heaven and on earth, mercifully hear the pleading of your people
and bestow your peace on our times.
Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son,
who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,

Responsorial Psalm

Psalm 39(40):2,4,7-10

Behold I have come, Lord, to do your will.

I waited, I waited for the LORD;
and he stooped down to me; he heard my cry.
He put a new song in my mouth,
 praise of our God.

You delight not in sacrifice and offering,
 but in an open ear.

You do not ask for holocaust and sin offering.
Then I said, 'Behold, I have come.'

In the scroll of the book it stands written of me;
'I delight to do your will, O my God;
 your instruction lies deep within me.'

Your uprightness I have proclaimed
in the great assembly.
My lips I have not sealed;
you know it, O LORD.
