Mass Readings

First reading – Isaiah 25:6a;7-9 – On that day: On this mountain the LORD of hosts will make for all peoples a feast of rich food. And he will swallow up on this mountain the covering that is cast over all peoples, the veil that is spread over all nations. He will swallow up death for ever; and the Lord GOD will wipe away tears from all faces, and the reproach of his people he will take away from all the earth, for the LORD has spoken. It will be said on that day, 'Behold, this is our God; we have waited for him, that he might save us. This is the LORD; we have waited for him; let us be glad and rejoice in his salvation.'

Gradual – Psalm 23 – Dominus regit me

Second reading – 5:17-21 – Brothers and Sisters: If, because of one man's trespass, death reigned through that one man; much more will those who receive the abundance of grace and the free gift of righteousness reign in life through the one man Jesus Christ. Therefore, as one trespass led to condemnation for all men, so one act of righteousness leads to justification and life for all men. For as by the one man's disobedience the many were made sinners, so by the one man's obedience the many will be made righteous. But where sin increased, grace abounded all the more, so that, as sin reigned in death, grace also might reign through righteousness leading to eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Gospel reading – John 6:37-40 – At that time, Jesus said to the crowd: All that the Father gives me will come to me, and whoever comes to me I will never cast out. For I have come down from heaven, not to do my own will, but the will of him who sent me. And this is the will of him who sent me, that I should lose nothing of all that he has given me, but raise it up on the last day. For this is the will of my Father, that everyone who looks on the Son and believes in him should have eternal life, and I will raise him up on the last day.'

Act of Remembrance – two minutes' silence at 11am.

The Last Post is sounded.

Let us remember before God and commend to his sure keeping those who have died for their country in war; those whom we knew and those whose memory we treasure; and all who have lived and died in the service of mankind.

V. They shall grow not old, as we that are left grow old, age shall not weary them nor the years condemn. At the going down of the sun, and in the morning we will remember them.
R. We will remember them.

Two minutes of silence are then kept. At the end, the Reveille is sounded.

Let us pray.
Remember, O Lord, all those who have died the death of honour and are departed in the hope of resurrection to Eternal Life, especially the Officers, Men and Women of our Sea, Land and Air Forces, to whom it was given to lay down their lives for the cause of Freedom and Justice. In that place of light, whence sorrow and mourning are far vanished, give them rest, O Lord, the Lover of Men. Grant this for Thine only Son, Jesus Christ's sake. Amen.

National Anthem: NEH 489 v1

V. O Lord, save Charles our King.
R. And mercifully hear us in the day when we shall call upon thee.

Let us pray.
Almighty God, we pray for thy servant, Charles our King, now by thy mercy reigning over us. Adorn him yet more with every virtue, remove all evil from his path, that with all the Royal Family he may come at last in grace to thee, who art the way, the truth, and the life. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.
